

SHROUD SPECTRUM NO. 7

In previous Newsletters, we have highly recommended the US journal Shroud Spectrum, and the recently-received seventh issue continues to maintain the high standard. The contents include an article by Fr. Rinaldi describing his reflections on the death of ex-king Umberto of Savoy; an illustrated article by BSTS committee member Rodney Hoare entitled 'The Shroud Indicates the Cross had a Sedile'; and a fascinating historical essay, 'Louis I, Duke of Savoy' (the Duke who received the Shroud from Margaret de Charny in 1453), written by Shroud Spectrum's indefatigable editor, Mrs Dorothy Crispino. For members who find difficulty arranging international magazine subscriptions, Peter Freeland writes:

"I get my copy of Shroud Spectrum from Fr. Charles Foley, at The Presbytery, Ashburton Road, Bovey Tracey, Devon. He is prepared to obtain and distribute copies for an annual subscription of £10. Other people might like to know of this."
