

THE SOCIETY'S NEXT PUBLIC MEETING WILL BE HELD AS FOLLOWS:

Friday 3rd August

at 7.00 pm

At the Small Hall, St. James' Church, Sussex Gardens, Bayswater, London W2. (Nearest underground, Lancaster Gate. Turn right out of the tube, down Lancaster Terrace, then left into Sussex Gardens. The Church is on the left). The Annual General Meeting will be followed by a talk by Ian Wilson, in which he will summarise world research to date and exhibit full-sized duplicates of the X-rays taken of the Shroud by the American STURP team. Another meeting will be scheduled for early October, at which a talk will be given by Dr Robert Bruce-Chwatt concerning some of the anatomical and physiological aspects of judicial crucifixion. (Date to be notified in Newsletter No. 8, due for publication in September).
