

NOTES ABOUT THE AUTHOR

DR. GILBERT LAVOIE has not ceased to scrutinize the Shroud since the hours he spent before it in 1978, during the Exposition, and the results of his studies have appeared in Spectrum 3, 7, 8, and 20, as well as Sindon, official journal of the Centro Internazionale di Sindonologia. Dr. Lavoie took degrees from Boston College, the Medical College of Virginia and Johns Hopkins. After serving as Chief of the Branch of Epidemiology at the U.S. Army Headquarters Medical Command in Europe, he was consultant in Bangladesh for the Smallpox Eradication Program of the World Health Organization. Besides private practice in Internal Medicine, he holds positions on the staffs of Boston hospitals and is also Clinical Instructor on the faculty of Tufts Medical School.

REFEREES in 1988: Drs. John Jackson, Henry Wellman, Frederick Zugibe, Rev. Adam J. Otterbein, C.S.S.R., and Prof. William Meacham.
