

When Aaron enters the tabernacle to offer a sacrifice on the altar for the children of Israel,
he will wear a linen tunic.

Levit. 16:3 & 4
Offertory for the Feast
of the Most Holy Sindon
from the Tridentine Mass.

COVER: The astonishing elevation of the choir of Saint-Thibaulten-Auxois rises above the plains that spread below Charny. In the XIIIth century, this was one of France's most celebrated pilgrimage shrines. Elisabeth de Charny, dame de Thil, in 1257 contributed 100 sous to the ongoing construction.

Photo by D. Crispino